Lexicography by Iranian has very long record; older than one can imagine it; around 6 centuries sooner than the first European Dictionary was edited. However editing the specialized dictionary, alike other places, is rather new work. The present specialized dictionary is in fact the shorter edition of what will be furnished within few months. The method of preparing of these specialized dictionaries has been a scientific methods comprising gathering information and arranging in alphabetic form. The shorter editions-Persian-English and English-Persian, are comprised of the main Persian literature terms and their equivalents in English; each term followed by the supplement descriptive essays on more specific terms in Note chapter of the Persian-English volume.
