One tragic night, Knox's picture-perfect future was ripped away, all that's left is the thriving family business. His body and soul craves revenge from the one who took everything away from him. But then Jasmine crashes into Knox's life and he suddenly feels torn. She's not supposed to take up residence in his head, quite the opposite.

What is he supposed to do about falling for the girl who was going to be an integral part of his plan for retaliation? Walk away? Or run towards something he knows he shouldn't want?

When all secrets are revealed can they move forward without the past destroying any hopes of having a future together?
