NYT & USA Today Bestselling Author

What man would be crazy enough to date a whore? Star is a sex worker in Amsterdam's red light district. After the intimate exchange between her and Rick, she's hoped to take their adventure into affection farther. Too bad he's disappeared for weeks.

When he resurfaces, to deliver her portion of the paycheck they'd earned by starring in a live sex show together, the magnetism between them proves irresistible. In the wake of undeniable passion, they're left wondering if they can make a relationship work in unconventional circumstances.

They're both convinced... you can buy sex, but you can't buy love. And nothing else will satisfy their hunger for each other.
