The Man Who Rode the Tiger Charles Sailor

THE MAN WHO RODE THE TIGER is planned as a series of David Kettering novels written by the NEW YORK TIMES bestselling author of THE SECOND SON, Charles Sailor. This taut suspense thriller tells the story of a fathers unwavering determination to save his daughter from execution in China. David Kettering finds himself pitted against the government of China as well as the world's most powerful communist party. Expelled from China on the day of her sentencing, and with only seven days to save her life Kettering takes matters into his own hands. As the clock runs down, and with only hours to spare, Kettering finally possesses something viable to trade. When he notifies the Chinese authorities he becomes a marked and relentlessly hunted man. It seems David Kettering holds the one thing that China cannot allow to exist. THE MAN WHO RODE THE TIGER validates the belief that a single individual has the power to alter the world in a positive way, no matter the odds.
