Who Am I Without Him? Gail Ruth Peterson

For your Maker is your husbandthe LORD Almighty is his namethe Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; he is called the God of all the earth' (Isaiah 54:5, NIV). A self-help book written originally for widows, once Who Am I without Him? was complete, it became obvious that the book is a valuable tool for anyone who's struggling. Gail's journey through widowhood and her desperate clinging to God in the absence of her husband started an intense search for her to understand how God could be the Husband He describes for us in Isaiah 54:5. Who Am I Without Him? helps us take inventory of specific voids in our lives and walks us through the promises God gives us in the names unpacked in this powerful verse, giving us the confidence to seek His plan for the greatest fulfillment in our own lives.
