Are you at a point in your life where you want something different in your life, but you are unsure of how to get it? Maybe you have lost what brings joy into your life and you want it back? There are only two things in this life we can ever change -- our Attitude and our Effort. Because we experience new things and meet new people, we are constantly changing. Even if we think we aren't. This book is based on postings from my blog, www.constantchangetoday.com and will inspire you to not only ask the right questions, but the most important question. What is the question? "What is the ONE thing you wish you could change about your life?" If you are prepared to not only ask that question and answer it honestly, you can change your life. But changing your life will be difficult and you will want to quit. But once you get the point of no return, there is no going back. How do I know? Because someone else asked me that same question and my life has never been the same since. What are you waiting for? Living with failure is easier than living with regrets. Instead of fear deciding what you do or don't do, let courage lead you as you begin to follow your heart and embrace the journey of life. You are meant to be here. It's Time...and changing your life starts TODAY!
