God In the Rear View Mirror: Finding Hope When the Path Seems Dim LaVila Henry

Do you have a dream that seems to be lying in the grave?

Is there a relationship that needs a revival?

Do you react with anxiety when things don't appear to be going the way you think they should?

Has God ever placed you strategically and solely for the benefit of someone else?

Have you stopped to appreciate the smallest blessings --- or a kindness either given or received?

When God is at work, often we see what He has done only after the fact. This book offers encouragement that God is always there watching out for His children. It gives hope that no circumstance is truly hopeless. It emphasizes the importance of recognizing and appreciating God's help through life-altering experiences, as well as noticing and valuing the very smallest blessings we receive from Him. It reminds us to look for God in the rearview mirror.
