If Good Men Do Nothing J. E. Parker

In a small Southern town, the murder of a young girl will send two local detectives on a hunt that puts them at odds with the most powerful men in the county. As Sullivan "Van" Hughes and Jefferson Douglass struggle to find answers to a crime no one wants solved, Van will find his principles, his honor, and his faith pushed to the limits. The fight only deepens as this crime is strangely similar to an unsolved murder that tore Sullivan's family apart decades earlier and those similarities open up wounds he'd thought were healed.

In the end, will Sullivan's faith and determination overcome the power of small town politics at its worst or will he be crushed by evil men? All will depend on what these good men will do.
