WELCOME ABOARD...

Police Officer Jack Wardsley's life ended the moment his partner died, stabbed to death by a degenerate thug. His recent record of police brutality, and a reputation for not following the rules, has prompted his seniors to give him an ultimatum: take a few weeks off and let go of all the anger – or face the consequences.

That's why Jack is about to board The Spirit of Kirkpatrick, a cruise liner built for relaxation and fun. Maybe there he can reevaluate his life and decide if he even wants to continue living. Unfortunately he won't get the chance to do much thinking, as there's a virus onboard making people insane. Soon the entire ship will be overrun with blood and death. There is nowhere to escape.

But just when Jack thinks his time is up, he wakes up in bed. Was it all a dream? The day seems to be starting over again, but will this time be different? Or will things end the same way as before, with everybody dead?

Can anything Jack can do anything to stop the spread of the evil pathogen, or is he doomed never to see land again?

"Iain Rob Wright has written a novel unlike anything else. A story that is equal parts Dawn of the Dead and Groundhog Day. An unforgettable classic."

Interview with the author

Q - So, what makes Sea Sick a great horror novel?

A - Zombies on a boat! No, really, I feel this book's strength is its uniqueness. The virus is deadly, sure, but Sea Sick is about the good guys fighting back. In particular, one powerful passenger who is able to play with time itself in order to buy Jack some time to try and save the day. While it's a zombie novel at heart, there's a healthy mix of sci-fi and fantasy thrown in too. Oh, yeah, and it's a mystery!

Does Sea Sick have a sequel?

A - It has two! Ravage and Savage both follow on the story. You can also meet Jack before the events of Sea Sick by grabbing my Thriller novel, ASBO.

Why should horror lovers grab this free book?

A - Because they have nothing to lose. I promise this book is fast-paced, wholly original, funny, scary, and full of the undead. Or your money back!
