Reaches of activity their ignorance intimates knowledge Their failures make success a most desirable thing, Their sinfulness and its miseries make a holy life the richest of all coveted prizes. Everything on the human side of their experience so suggests an ideal Excellency that they have come to live largely under the hope of such excellences to be realized by and by their present possessions constantly intimate richer ones to be attained. They see on before and up

Above a life and a world so desirable that they now live much under inspiration drawn from them " Hope springs eternal in the human breast: Man never is, but always to be best."

This hope is the seed of the idea of heaven. It is universal, and hence the anticipation of heaven is universal among men. It is in the Nature of man; hence men in the form of men would not be men without it. Men, or creatures so called, would not be men without intellects, nor would they be men without affections no

More would they be men without the hope which Gives the visions of heaven not revealed any more than natural is the heaven which men anticipate. Not of the Bible any more than of History is the heaven in which men have believed. It is in men to have a vision of heaven -before them. Call this vision by what name we May, it is that notion of anticipated good which their nature produces.
