All The King's Horses and All the King's Men: A Model for Reconciling Relationships Through Spiritual Disciplines Dr. Dorothea Johnson James

Most of us find ourselves stuck in broken relationships, which we are unable to fix. This book is designed to engage those people who are facing problems of disconnect coupled with communication barriers and plain old frustration within relationships. It should provide guidance and biblical based instruction to those who may be unwilling or unable to reconcile relationships. In this upside down world relationships can be messy and painful. It will be proposed that we as individuals should be intrinsically involved in the process of reconciling relationships; by inferring that when we are placed in an environment that allows us to recognize brokenness and apply principles of spiritual disciplines, reconciliation within relationships will occur. So when Humpty Dumpty falls off the relationship wall and feels broken and bruised; he does not have to rely on all the king's horses or all the king's men. He just needs to look to God and the Word of God. Restoration can be found there.
