Encyclopedia of Infantry Weapons of World War II Ian V. Hogg

The Encyclopedia of Infantry Weapons of World War II is a fully comprehensive and illustrated reference work including every major type of weapon used by every army in the world during the Second World War. Every infantry weapon used during World War II, including rifles, machine guns, anti-tank weapons, mortars and grenades are cited on a country by country basis. The origin and development of each weapon as well as its merits and demerits are explained by Master Gunner Ian V. Hogg and virtually every weapon quoted in the text is illustrated by photographs and/or line drawings. Photographs in color and black and white are used to show these weapons in action.
