The Banker's Life

George S. Moore

The Banker's Life George S. Moore

The memoirs of a feisty Missourian who built the biggest bank in the world.

George Moore's story is a peculiarly American one: humble beginnings in Hannibal, Missouri; a scholarship at Yale; and a spectacular rise through troubled times in the banking world to the pinnacle of success as chairman of First National City Corporation (now Citibank). It is a story full of anecdotes, unorthodox wisdom, and surprises.
